

Music is name of the game

MORE than 20 children and adults will enjoy the magic of musicals when they travel from Fitton Hill and Hathershaw to see the Manchester show "Footloose."

The trip on Saturday has been made possible by the Performance Plaza theatre and entertainment school, which has secured a £2,000 grant from the New Deal for Communities Project.

Paul Burgess, who runs Performance Plaza, said: "The money has also helped us to hugely expand our music programme.

Guitars

"We have bought a lot more guitar packs which we use for our students to give people a chance to play so they don't have to go to the expense of buying a guitar.

"All our classes are at the Hathershaw College of Sport and Technology.

"The theatre trip will enable people who may never have seen live theatre before to enjoy the experience."

"Footloose" is a musical which celebrates dance with 1980s songs.
